OASFAA Annual Conference

April 24-26, 2024

Nationwide Hotel & Conference Center
Columbus, Ohio

Ohio Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 2024 OASFAA conference, and congratulations on being a survivor of FAFSA Simplification – at least thus far, right? I am truly honored to serve OASFAA as president during the wildest year in financial aid that any one of us has ever experienced. My hope is that we will all use this time together to learn more about what's happened for 24-25, exchange ideas and best practices with each other, and celebrate a short respite from the office and all the duties there to enjoy the company of colleagues.

The conference committee has done a fantastic job to provide sessions to appeal to everyone. You'll find information on FAFSA Simplification, of course, and all the changes it has brought to processing aid, but there are also professional development sessions to help with work-life balance or just day-to-day life in the aid office. The entertainment on Wednesday evening promises to provide laughs, and Thursday's luncheon allows us the opportunity to celebrate the accomplishments of colleagues. The Chenelle Leadership Class also uses conference as a culmination of their year-long study of leadership, and I'm anxious for these emerging leaders to make their mark on our profession and association.

During the conference, we will have baskets of donated items to raffle off to benefit Families Flourish, the chosen community support organization for this conference. Representatives from Families Flourish will be with us on Wednesday to share more about their mission, and they will also have information at the registration area. Please purchase tickets for a chance to win one of the wonderful baskets donated for the cause, which will be located at our exhibitors' tables.

Speaking of exhibitors, stop by to see them not only for the baskets, but to find out what their organizations can do for you. Our associate members contribute so much to OASFAA through their time and efforts, so please stop by and thank them for all the work they do for us as OAFSAA members.

All of the work OASFAA does would not be possible without the commitment of the board, committee chairs, and committee members – everyone who has taken on OASFAA responsibilities this year in addition to working in aid while so much is changing. I am grateful for the hard work of all of these individuals, and the support given to me as president this year is something that I'll never forget.

Thank you for taking time out of an extremely busy time in the office to attend the annual conference. These 3 days promise connection, insight, and hopefully a renewed realization that we are truly all in this together – not only through the trials that have been the past few months, but also the spirit of serving students and their families. Warmly,

Jayme Jarrett, FAAC®
2023-2024 OASFAA President

Empowering Change For Generations

Our Moms Say:

A year in, I already have a better job, less stress, more money, applying to grad school.

My child is helping with the younger kids, tutoring younger kids at the library.

My son increased his test scores and is building positive relationships with teachers.

When I feel stuck, my coach listened and encouraged me.

The mission of Families Flourish is to create a more equitable community for families by empowering them to achieve and succeed through a holistic support initiative.

Families Flourish empowers families to address their total needs over a 3-year period, reversing historic barriers by fostering greater inclusivity, equality, opportunity and access to housing, education, and family wellness.

Families Flourish helps communities embrace and create housing that is accessible to all. Parents are provided tools to improve life outcomes for themselves and their children.
